

FELLOWSHIP...

...AND FUN

WHAT IS PROBUS?

A PROBUS Club is a local association of retired and semi-retired PROfessional and BUSiness people, and others who have had some measure of responsibility in any field of worthy endeavour, who are of character and respected in their communities.

Clubs meet regularly for fellowship and an extension of their interests.

Each club is autonomous and chooses its own rules and programme. Some clubs meet weekly, some monthly, some twice a month. Some have coffee mornings with guest speakers, some have lunches or dinners. Many organise day trips and holidays to which partners and friends may be invited if the club so chooses.

Each club elects its own officers, typically a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, speaker-finder and membership secretary.

PROBUS Clubs do not exist to raise money for charity, although some choose to run occasional fund-raising events and raffles.

PROBUS SUPPORT

The PROBUS movement has a magazine published quarterly and designed as a forum for clubs to share experiences and seek or impart advice.

The magazines are free; clubs who choose to subscribe pay only the cost of packaging and delivery.

Probus magazine is the only publication published nationally for Probus members.

PROBUS clubs in the UK and Ireland also now have an 'umbrella' website:

In addition to resources such as a directory of speakers, table graces, outing and holiday recommendations etc., each club may have its own page free of charge on which it controls the content.

A 'chat' section allows registered users to ask for and give advice more quickly than through the magazine.

Only bona fide PROBUS members may register to view the site, thus preventing unscrupulous companies from targeting members with unwanted advertising.
